Dear Harold,

It was very good talking to you and Lillian this morning. After we spoke, I phoned Wrone and we also had a good conversation on the subject.

I am sorry to tell you my memory was correct -- what I remembered when we spoke was not the index to Whitewash II (my copy is not indexed, ending on page 250), but the 1976 epilogue to your expanded edition of Photographic Whitewash, which I had inserted at the end of my original 1967 copy.

With Best Wishes & Warm Regards to both of you

Sincerely.

Ray
